

Measure of Service to the Community

Members

Volunteers

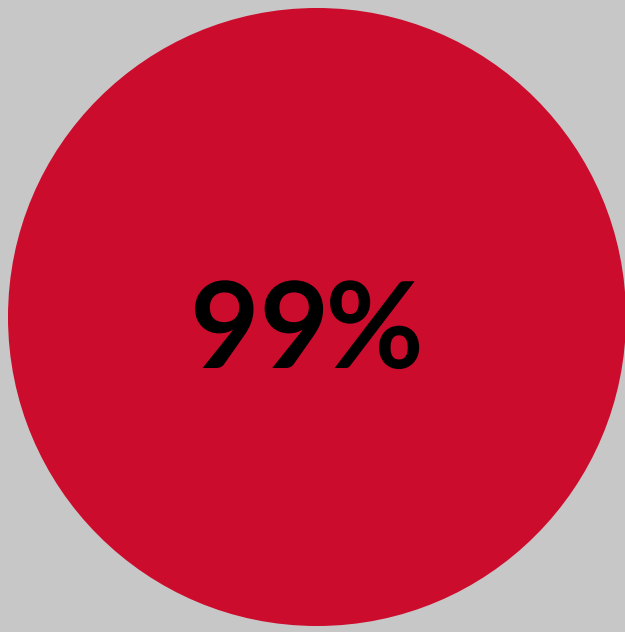

Board Members

Volunteer Hours

Programming

offer programs / special events

programs

special events

The most common barriers considered are ...

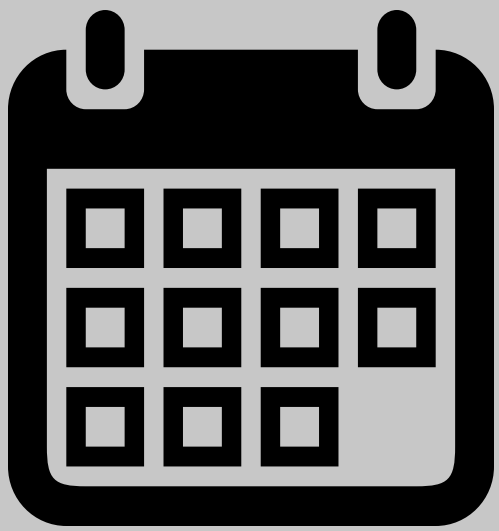

Financial

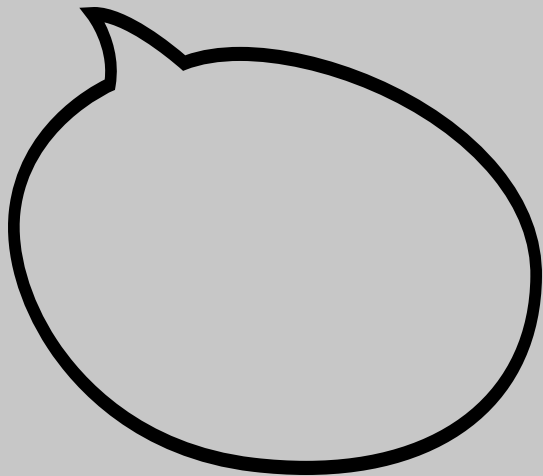

Physical Accessibility

62% of groups said that they always meet the needs and interests of the community Groups use these information sources to plan programs, services & events ...

Past programs etc.
89%

Resident feedback
89%

Community demographics
71%

Community surveys
56%

Comments

We need support from The City to be able to assess our community to ensure we remain relevant and are able to address the wants and needs in our community.

We consider what is reasonable barriers to accommodate but not always possible. We often collaborate with other organizations to help meet barriers such as financial, child care.